

CARDINAL

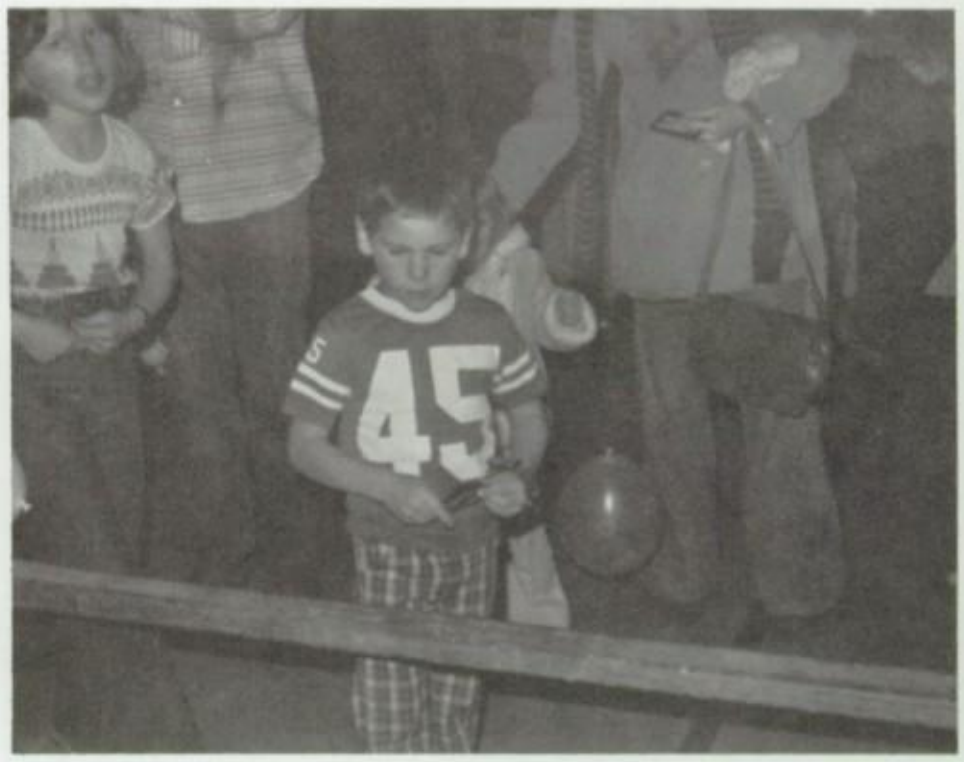

WHAT IS A FARMER?

Today's farmer is a paradox — he is
an executive with his home in his office;
a laborer digging fence post holes;
a dietitian with a passion for alfalfa,
amino acids and antibiotics;
an engineering genius fixing machinery;
a scientist using fertilizer attachments;
a purchasing agent in an old straw hat;
a production expert with a grain shipping problem;
a personnel director with grease under his fingernails;
a manager battling a cost-price squeeze;
in short, a specialist, yet "Jack of all trades."

Hope I win a neat prize!

What do I do Now?

SENIOR TRIP AND CARNIVAL

The Senior Class of HCHS held a carnival in the Elementary gym to raise money for a Senior Trip. Lots of people came to join in the fun and went home with quite a few prizes. There were many booths to choose from along with a cake walk, Bingo, a spook house and a fortune teller. The Seniors made enough money for an enjoyable trip to Colorado. They visited a museum, an art gallery and then headed for Winter Park for a day of skiing. The trip also included a meal at the famous Casa Bonita. After spending a fun weekend together the Seniors endured a long but exciting bus ride home to good ole Hayes Center.

Oops! What happened Judy?

Don't say it Jon!

FEMALE ATHLETE

Converse sneakers, Johnson's baby powder and musk-oil perfume — all tucked away into a duffle bag. Pigtails and sweat. She wants to play; she wants to win. She tries hard, because she has a job to do.

She doesn't have to stay after school and run and run, she wants to. She gets ribbed from the guys, but she's used to it, wanting to prove she can play ball and win at it.

Why does she play? Because there's the feeling of being part of something. The companionship of teammates, the thrill of winning, the excitement of a crowd cheering the team to a victory. The kid with the basketball is a girl.

All the hard work paid off as the girl's basketball team posted a 9-4 season. Mr. Livingston, more commonly known as Mr. "Clint," set the team's goal high and never let it drop anything below a positive outlook. The girls started out slowly, all their games being too close for comfort! But as they gained skill and confidence, the team was on the victor side more often than the defeated.

GRADE SCHOOL STAFF

What would we do without janitors, cooks, and out aides? The floors would always have our crumbs from yesterday's dinner, our little mud tracks down the halls, and dirty tables and chairs. Our mother's would have to fix us a sandwich because there would be no hot lunches anymore. No more would we receive the extra help that most of us need to make it through the day.

Custodian — Mr. Clifford Beard

Cooks — Mrs. Geraldine Glee, Calvin Callander, Mrs. Leona Lawson, Mrs. Violet Beard, Judy Hurst, and Mrs. Bertha Jacobs.
